

LEKGOTLA Johannesburg September 1, 2002

Draft Agenda Revised April 30, 2002

Time	Session	Speaker/Panelist	Format design champion and team
0800	Arrival and registration
0900	Setting the scene and expectations - connecting to the WSSD - shared responsibility and partnerships	Tokyo Sexwale Sir Mark Moody-Stuart	Plenary
0920 1050	Sustainable use and management of natural resources - eco-efficiency and innovation - sustainable access to energy, water, health, education, land and minerals - sustainable consumption - community development	Moderator Emad el-Sharkawi, Egypt	6 x 7 minutes podium presentations 45 minutes Q&A and discussion Kristen Sukalac Karin Ireton, Andrew Parson, Dominique Chauvin
	Objectives and progress report of the Sustainable Mobility initiative	Opening statement Dr. Toyoda, Toyota	Dr Toyoda will use sequential interpretation and will not participate in the discussion.
	Energy and Biodiversity Initiative (EBI), a partnership between leading energy companies and conservation NGOs to develop guidelines for integrating biodiversity conservation into oil and gas development.	Achim Steiner, IUCN
	Land and soil management as the engine for growth and development, including promotion of sustainable consumption of fertilizers and community development	Wladimir Puggina, IFIA
	The sustainable management of chemicals	Tom Reilly, ACC
	Objectives and progress of the Global Mining Initiative and the Mining and Minerals Sustainable Development Initiative	Sir Robert Wilson, Rio Tinto
	A sustainable cement industry	Thomas Schmidheiny, Holcim
xx	30 min Heads of State segment	Richard McCormick, ICC

LEKGOTLA Johannesburg September 1, 2002

Draft Agenda Revised April 30, 2002

Time	Session	Speaker/Panelist	Format design champion and team
1120 1240	Making markets and globalization work for all - market frameworks, local governance - market access - new business models to serve the basic needs of the poor	Moderator Simon Upton Chair OECD Roundtable on SD	5 x 7 minutes podium presentations 40 minutes Q&A and discussion Vanida Govender Norine Kennedy, John Dillon
	Initiatives and new business models for access to drugs and health	Lars Rebien Soerensen, Novo
	Energy access, new business models and local governance	Antonio del Rosario, WEC
	Opportunities in the hydrogen age and sustainable urban design	Hiroshi Urano, IGU
	Clean water access and management	Robert Walker, Severn Trent
	Grass roots development initiatives, indigenous technologies, global market access	Ashok Khosla, Development Alternatives
1240	Lunch break
1400	Sustainable investment and development - principles for investment and technical cooperation - synergy with development aid - innovation Note. The Globalization and the Investment sessions are strongly connected and could flow like one	Moderator Maria Cattai-Livanos, ICC	5 x 7 minutes podium presentations 50 minutes Q&A and discussion Fernando Almeida
	Financing sustainable development – new approaches and new chances	James Wolfensohn, World Bank
	Innovative approaches and initiatives to meet the Millennium water access objectives	Gérard Mestrallet, Suez
	Initiatives in sustainable power generation	Ron Osborne, Ontario Power Gen
	On the synergy between ODA/FDI, new investment frameworks and the importance of good local governance	Mohamed Rafik Meghji, WFEO
	Possibility for additional panelist or shorter session	High Level, Chinese industry

LEKGOTLA Johannesburg September 1, 2002

Draft Agenda Revised April 30, 2002

Time	Session	Speaker/Panelist	Format design champion and team
1530	15 min Keynote HIV-AIDS	Barry Davison, RSA Chamber of Mines
xx	30 min Heads of State segment	Phil Watts, WBCSD
1615	Accountability and transparency <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Voluntary Initiatives, good governance and performance reporting as our way forward in partnership with others • Targets and performance reporting (incl.social aspects) • Consumer information • From voluntary action to policy frameworks 	Moderator Björn Stigson, WBCSD	6 x 7 minutes podium presentations 45 minutes Q&A and discussion Birgit Engelhardt Vanida Govender,
	Learning to change	Chad Holiday, DuPont
	Performance targets and reporting, social dialogue and transparency	Anne Lauvergeon, Areva
	Sustainability performance reporting – the GRI process and its influence	Judy Henderson, GRI board
	The power of consumer information and choice	xxx. ex Unilever Nigeria
	Sustainability standards and stakeholder initiatives	Claude Martin, WWF
	Corporate Social Responsibility and good local governance	Judge Mervin King,
	Fast forward to the future: corporate accountability	Young Manager Team rep
1745	Keynote	Klaus Töpfer, UNEP
1800	Key messages to the Summit The NEPAD perspective	Lord Holme Reuel Khoza
1820 1830	Closing comments	Sir Mark Moody-Stuart

LEKGOTLA Johannesburg September 1, 2002

Draft Agenda Revised April 30, 2002

Speakers options

Confirmed attendance not confirmed	Keynote	Resources	Markets Globalization	Investment	Transparency
Speakers number	6	5 + 1	5	4 - 5	6
BASD chairs
	Tokyo Sexwale	Dr Toyoda	Antonio del Rosario	Gérard Mestrallet	Chad Holiday
Mark Moody-Stuart	Barry Davison	Achim Steiner	Robert Walker	James Wolfensohn	Claude Martin
Reuel Khoza	Klaus Töpfer	Wladimir Puggina	Hiroshi Urano	Ron Osborne	Judy Henderson
Richard Holme	Richard D. McCormick	Sir Robert Wilson	Lars Rebien Soerensen	M Rafik Meghji	Judge Mervin King
	PM Tony Blair	Tom Reilly	Ashok Khosla	Chinese executive	Anne Lauvergeon
	Phil Watts	Thomas Schmidheiny			A Young Manager
	President Fox
	President Mbeki
Moderators		Emad el-Sharkawi	Upton	Cattai-Livanos	Stigson
Represents South
30 confirmed
4 pending
Alternate speakers
Andrey Andreevsky				Judith Mayhew	Carl Ware, Coca Cola
					X, ex Unilever, Nigeria